Margaret Shady, Editor

[illegible]

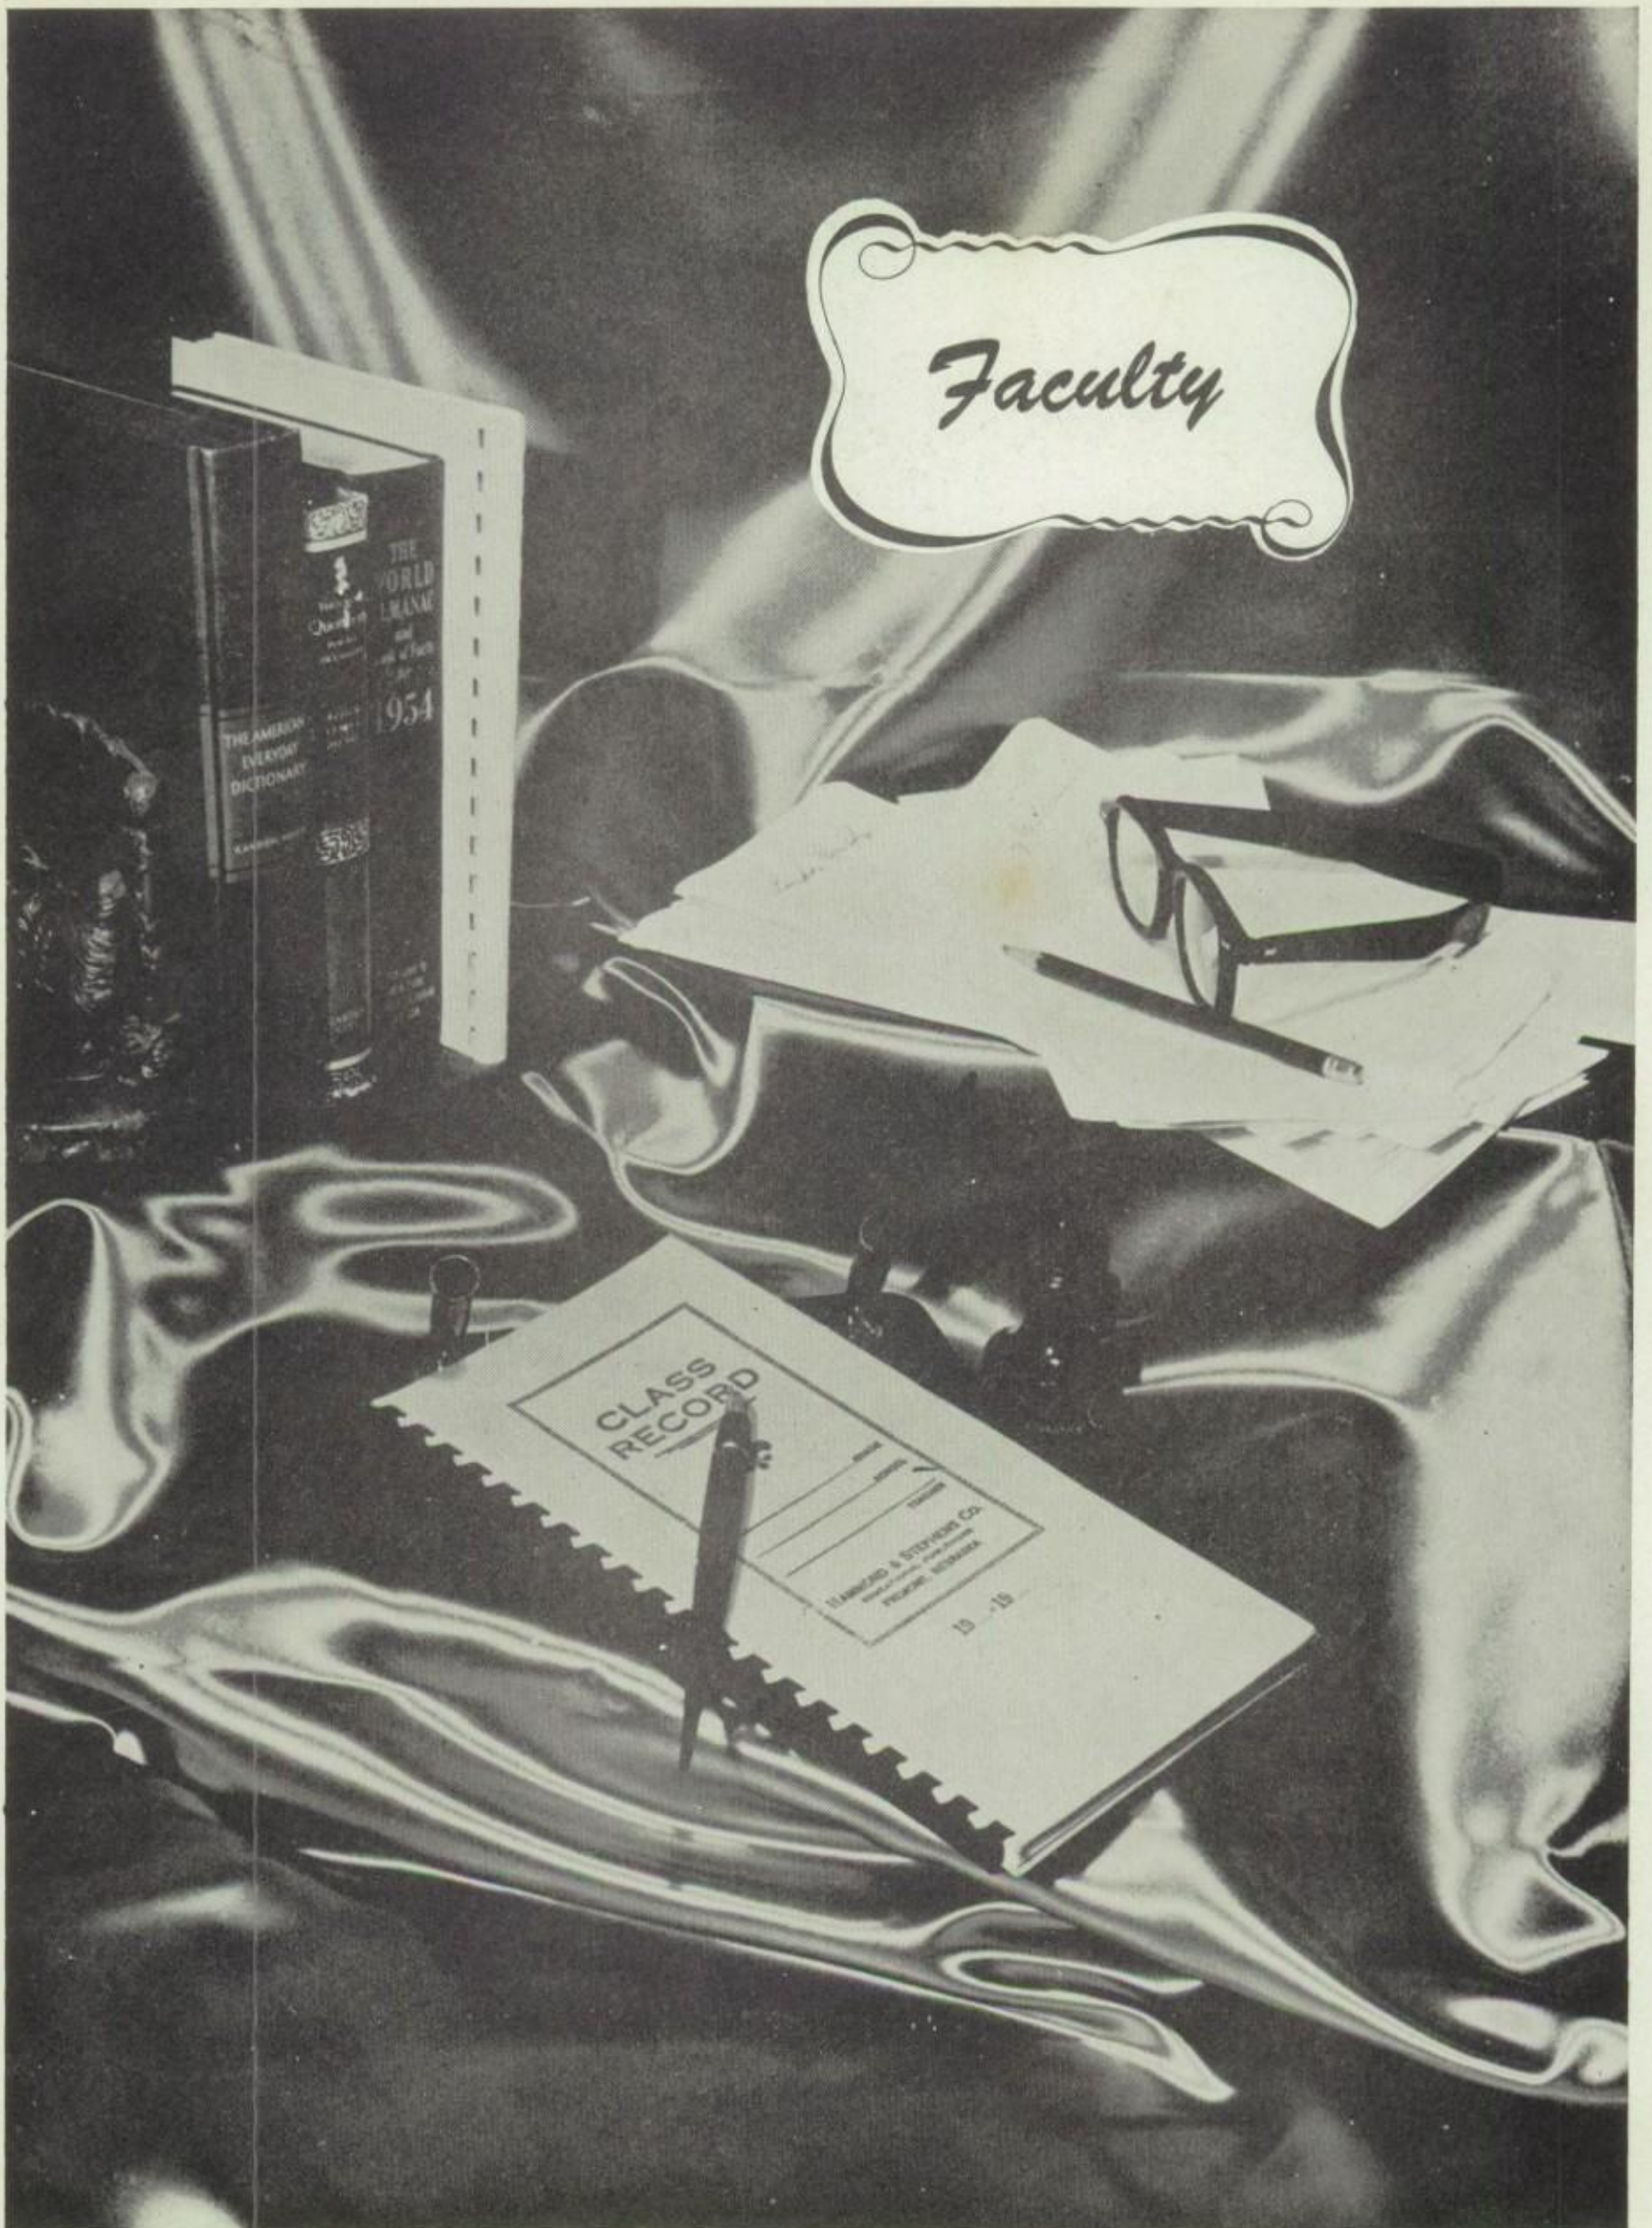

We, the junior class of 1957-58, take pride in dedicating this year's annual to one we feel deserves the honor, Mr. Glenn Smith.

He has taught in our school for 8 years. This year he teaches algebra, general math, bookkeeping, economics, and 2 sections of the 8th grade math.

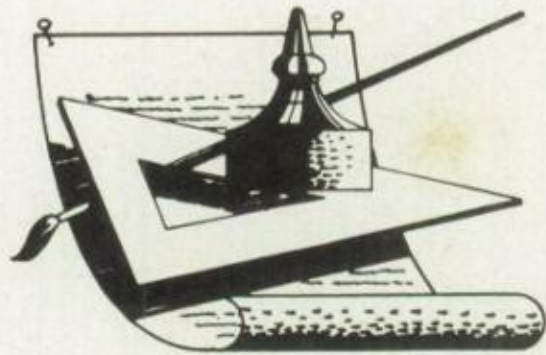

We hope he will accept this as a token of appreciation for what he has done for the school.

Class History, Class of 1958

In 1946, a group of thirty-six girls and boys entered the first grade under the guidance of Mr. Floy Koenig. They are as follows: Clark Baker, Violet Beair, Donald Burke, Carl Case, James Davis, Joyce Elliott, Helen Faulder, Danny Fox, Alma Gross, Rita Hollenbacker, Larry Judy, David Klopfenstein, James Knief, Lois Kysenceder, Linda Lawhead, Patricia Lawhead, Betty Leininger, Sharon Linker, Richard Maxwell, Emerson Metz, Donald Poppe, Janis Powers, Joseph Reading, Kemp Reynolds, Mary Ann Schaub, John Sherer, William Snyder, Eugene Stevens, Gloria Tidd, Phyllis Wildermuth, Charles Wiles, Sue Williams, Shirley Wilt, Meriam Zwiebel, Sharon Zwiebel, and Barbara Wright.

Our years from the second to the sixth grades were filled with many happy and glorious hours. We learned many new things, increasing our minds and making our lives more important.

The teachers that helped to teach us in these grades were as follows: Mrs. Minnie Ellis, Second; Miss Shirley Shively, third; Mrs. Crystal Stahler, fourth; Mrs. Bernadine Heintz, fifth; and Mrs. Mabel McGowan, sixth.

In 1952, we entered Junior High with Mrs. Margaret Forsythe as our guide.

In our second year of Junior High, we had as our home room teacher, Mr. Russell Helmlinger. That year five of our boys were on the Junior High Basketball team. They were Gerald Miller, Don Poppe, Larry Howell, Don Bailey, and Dick Maxwell. That year we won the Junior High County Tournament.

Our cheerleaders were Betty Leininger, Gloria Tidd, and Linda Lawhead. We gave a party for the pupils who entered Junior High.

In 1954, we entered high school with Mr. Henry Beattie as our home room teacher. That year we were initiated into high school by the Senior Class of 1954. We gave an assembly program entitled "Wilbur Faces Life", directed by Mrs. Lois Kaylor.

When we were sophomores we sponsored the Homecoming. Lois Elsass was the sophomore attendant. Selling calendars was one of our projects to make money for our senior trip. Our sophomore assembly was "Life O' The Party".

Our Junior year was filled with many activities. Sharon Zwiebel was Editor of our annual and Betty Leininger was Co-Editor. We ordered our class rings in October and received them in January. "Off The Track", a comedy, was the title of our Junior Play. May 11, 1957, we enjoyed the Junior and Senior Banquet which was held at the school house. The theme was "The Garden Of Friendship". Lois Elsass represented our class by being the Junior attendant at the Homecoming.

We entered the twelfth grade with twenty-six seniors in our class. This was a very busy and interesting year. First we had our graduation pictures taken, and then we ordered our invitations, name cards, and thank you notes. We were all measured for our caps and gowns which were blue and white. Our class sponsor was Mr. Donald Holt.

We have chosen our class play entitled "House For Sale--Haunted". Lois Elsass was the Homecoming Queen and Sharon Zwiebel was the Senior attendant. We are all looking forward to graduation and our senior trip to Washington and New York.

There are twenty-six seniors who will graduate. They are Donald Bailey, James Davis, James Driskill, Lois Elsass, Alma Gross, Helen Harpest, Jack Huber, Linda Jackson, Larry Judy, David Klopfenstein, James Knief, Jean Ann Knotts, Betty Leininger, Sharon Linker, Richard Maxwell, Norman McName, Emerson Metz, Gerald Miller, Donald Poppe, May Ann Schaub, Tom Shindel, John Sherer, Gloria Tidd, Phyllis Wildermuth, Shirley Wilt, and Sharon Zwiebel.

The following students have gone through twelve years of school together: James Davis, Alma Gross, Larry Judy, David Klopfenstein, James Knief, Betty Leininger, Sharon Linker, Richard Maxwell, Emerson Metz, Donald Poppe, Mary Ann Schaub, John Sherer, Gloria Tidd, and Shirley Wilt.

To Serve Is Our Goal

As we enter life, we have one role,
That is to serve-which is our goal.
Now as seniors, we depart,
Holding memories in our heart.

As we look back through twelve years,
Our eyes are filled with sorrowful tears.
We hate to leave the friends we've made,
But our future pathway now is laid.

Yes, this path will be full of strife,
But we must lead a fearless life,
Serving God and serving man
And doing all the good we can.

Now we glance back and say good-by
To all of you at Jackson High.
We shall try to do the best in everything we do.
And Alma Mater, one thing is sure-we will remember you.

Betty Leininger

Class Song

Oh, we love the School of Jackson
Where we're proud to graduate.
This is the graduation of the Class of "58"
To the dear old Jackson High School
Every senior bids farewell.
And we will not forget the knowledge,
We've learned so well.

As we graduate and leave school days behind,
We hope success will readily appear;
But as we sadly start our journeys far apart,
A part of every heart will linger here.
To the dear old School of Jackson,
Every senior bids good-bye,
To faculty and students of dear old
Jackson High.

Linda Jackson and Sharon Linker
